

PAN AFRICAN CONGRESS
OF INTEGRATIVE MEDICINE

4 - 6 May, 2017 Cape Town, South Africa

He has graduated as a medical doctor in 1974 at the University of the Witwatersrand, South Africa and thereafter trained for seven years in anthroposophically integrative clinics in Switzerland and Germany in general medicine, paediatrics, cancer therapy, nutritional therapy and psychiatry. This training also involved finding a deep connection with the therapeutic arts, therapeutic eurythmy, rhythmic massage, the manufacture of natural medicine and the world of nature. Later he trained in homeopathy, integrative medicine, acupuncture, clinical nutrition, psychotherapeutic counselling, and functional medicine.

Since 1983, he has been working in an integrative general practice in Cape Town as a specialist practitioner in integrative medicine, as a school doctor for the Waldorf School Movement and as a participatory / psychophonetic counsellor.
